HIGHLIGHTS OF STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM IN TAN TRAO UNIVERSITY

1. Culture of Tuyen Quang, Vietnam

Mid-term festival

You will have unforgettable memory when joining in this large-scale event in Tuyen Quang, Vietnam. Streets are decorated by parade featuring hundreds of giant lanterns in different shapes.

There will be lots of events including lantern making contest, fruit tray decoration contest, music shows featuring artists from Laos, Korea and China, performance by “Dao” minority ethnic, etc...

In 2013, the Mid-Autumn Festival in Tuyen Quang Province was acknowledged as the event which has the most giant lanterns in Vietnam.

2. History of Tuyen Quang, Vietnam

Tuyen Quang museum

You have valuable opportunity to gain understanding of Tuyen Quang and Vietnam's long and profound history. There are many artifacts stored in the Tuyen Quang Museum. They are the stories and the witnesses to the experiences of peoples - past and present - in the Tuyen Quang. The large number of these artifacts, objects, and documents highlight the history of Tuyen Quang province and Vietnam.

Tan Trao historical relic

You will have a memorable trip to Tan Trao, which is the revolutionary base of Vietnam before the August Revolution. This is not only a historical area but also an attractive destination for tourists in Vietnam. Tan Trao is the interim capital, where the Communist Party of Vietnam conducts national party conference in 1945 to discuss about the plan for general uprising.

3. Give love - Get happiness

What could be more rewarding for your team and the community than organizing a meaningful Mid Autumn Festival Party in Social Support Center in Tuyen Quang city. This party is to share and take care of homeless elderly people and orphans. A worthwhile memory will be added into your journey in Vietnam.
